

Angel Blessing for a Business

Find a peaceful time where you know you will not be interrupted. Turn off all telephones. Make this time sacred.

Light a candle and say the following:

I call in the angels of Abundance, and I ask you to bless my business. Open my heart and my eyes. Allow me to see those who need and want to be served. Guide me intuitively to opportunities that will bless others and myself. Open new doors for me. Close the old doors that no longer serve me. Show me the path I am to take for the highest interest of myself, my family, my community and the world.

Let this business be about more than me. Let it be about those whom I serve. Allow me to fully comprehend that giving and receiving are two sides of the same coin. As I give, I receive. I give abundantly and I receive abundantly.

Show me the spiritual component of this business. Let me see it clearly.

I ask that I, my family, my employees and the world be blessed by this enterprise.

Clearly show me the steps I am to take to make this business fun, profitable, and helpful to humanity.

I ask that the revenue I receive from my clients be multiplied and returned to the world as a blessing.

I love you. I thank you. I am grateful for all you do.

And so it is.
