

Angel Blessing for a Career

Sit quietly with a pen and paper in hand. At the top of the paper write: "My Calling in the World". Write a list of all the things that you are called to give to the world. The angels say that we receive from the world as much as we give in return. Give of yourself generously, without depleting yourself, and you will receive generously.

When your list is complete, light a candle and say the following:

I invoke the Career Angels to fill this room and guide me now.

I want to make a difference in the world. I am called to make a difference in the world. I ask the angels to open new doors that will expand my reach in the world. Help me to give generously of myself.

I ask that my career be filled with joy, harmony, balance and peace. Guide me as I balance my personal needs with the needs of my career and the needs of those who love me. I ask that my responses to my co-workers and my clients come from a centered place of love.

Let me be a shining example to others of a person who loves their career. If I am not currently working at the place where I will make the biggest impact, guide me to my new endeavor. Let all who see my work know that it comes from a place of deep joy, fulfillment and satisfaction.

Show me the right work for me to do for the right pay. Help me to feel supported and appreciated by those I work with. Allow my work to be so joyful that it feels effortless.

I now claim my power. As I work from the place of power within me, my inner light shines even brighter for all to see.

And so it is.
