

Angel Blessing for a Life Partner

Find a quiet time when you know you will not be interrupted. Stand upright with your heart area open, your arms relaxed at your sides. Feel the earth firmly supporting you. Ask your angels to surround you.

Angels of Love, I call upon you. I am ready to be open to love. I ask you to surround me and release all relationship blocks within me. I know that I received blocks from my parents, my friends, and other family members. I also received blocks because I haven't truly loved myself. I release these blocks with love so that I may move forward to a beautiful new relationship.

As I am preparing for my new relationship, I ask that you prepare my life partner for me. Clear their relationship blocks. Open them to the possibility of a beautiful relationship with me.

Help me to clearly know who my life partner is when they come into my life. Help us to recognize each other. Allow our love to grow equally. Show us how to complement and nurture each other. As our love grows, let it be a shining light to the world. May we be beacons of hope for those who are faltering in their own relationships.

I am ready and willing to love myself. I take care of myself and treat myself with love. I allow myself to be human, yet realize that I am Divine. I know that I am a child of the Creator and I thank you deeply for that.

I ask that my partner and I have a joint mission for good in the world. Let our love heal others as we heal ourselves.

I stand ready.

I thank you. I love you. I am grateful.
