

House Blessing for the Sale of a Home

Light a candle as you say the following:

With this light and blessings of love I call in the forces of the elements and spirit to join me in purifying this home and readying it for those who will live and thrive here next.

I let go of this house from our life force to prepare it to support new owners with right minds and hearts who will respect its past. I say good-bye to this home with love and gratitude and release it to nurture, comfort and shelter the perfect new family.

I trust in the process of transition of ownership and affirm that I will receive the correct place to live at the perfect time. I bless my memories of this house in anticipation of a new and wonderful life in my next home. The energy and life force of our family's experiences live in my heart and I take them with me to the next place I live, now and always.

I trust the universe to help provide proper closure and the movement of my energy to the next step in my life.

I let go. I release. I move on. I give thanks. With Love.
